

21 Days of Focused-Prayer and Fasting

Day 1 Confronting Fear – Today, we pray that our trust in God will surpass that of any fear or anxiety of the uncertainty of life; and rather reflect on His unchanging love for us. (Isaiah 43:1-2 & Phil 4:4-8) Saturday. January 1, 2022

Day 2 Protection for Frontline Workers – This day we as a church pray for all Frontline Workers (doctors, nurses and other health care workers). We also call on the Lord to cover all our members and friends who are required to venture out into the society to work. (Psalm 91 & Isaiah 54:17) Sunday. January 2, 2022

Day 3 Unsaved Family Members – Today we pray for mothers, fathers, sons and daughters, that God will abundantly bless every home. Moreover, we pray for those individuals in our families that do not know the Lord and are struggling to give their lives to Him. Make a prayer list of every family member that is unsaved and mention them in prayer this day and beyond. (Acts 16:27-34). Monday. January 3, 2022

Day 4 Marriages – On this day we pray for every marriage in our church, we also pray for God's divine intervention in those marriages that are currently in turmoil. We also pray for the newly married, engaged couples to be married, that God will safeguard these relationships. (Ephesians 5:22-33) Tuesday. January 4, 2022

Day 5 COVID Related Employment Challenges – Today we lift up in prayer, all of our members who may be unemployed, business owners, or those seeking new employment opportunities. We pray that God will sustain every brother and sister, and ultimately continue to provide. (Psalm 20) FASTING TODAY Wednesday. January 5, 2022

Day 6 Private Sins/Struggles – On this day we are praying for God's redeeming power to move us towards true repentance, so that we confront the sin in our lives, through confession and true repentance. (Romans 6:1-4 & Psalm 51) Thursday. January 6, 2022

Day 7 Unity in the Body – Today we pray and implore our God to allow unity to flow among us as the body of Christ. Not only among us, but among true brethren who may not worship in our midst. (Col 3:12-17 & 1 Peter 5) Friday. January 7, 2022

Day 8 Pastor and Deacons – Today may the church lift the Pastor and Deacons in prayer, so that they will lead, chiefly in the areas of love, and care for every member and visitor of our church. That they will walk in integrity, filled with the Holy Spirit and good works. (2 Timothy 2:24-26 & Philippians 2). Saturday. January 8, 2022

Day 9 The Different Ministries of the Church – Today we pray for our Marriage & Singles Ministry, Sister 2 Sister, Children’s ministries, the Praise and Worship Team, Media Ministry, Officers of the Church and the Men’s Ministry. We pray that God would provide His divine wisdom, and that love will be the driving force behind the work. (1 Corinthians 12). Sunday. January 9, 2022

Day 10 Evangelism and Discipleship “One Soul A Day, could Keep Hell fire away” - On this day we pray that God will grant us more opportunities to spread the gospel with our words and our lives. Pray for boldness and courage to take the message to at least one soul everyday that we live. (Luke 4:18 & Matthew 5:15-16). Monday. January 10, 2022

Day 11 Praise and Thanksgiving – Today may our prayers to God centre around thanksgiving. Giving thanks for the ways in which God supplies our needs. Let us also pray that we will learn to be thankful even during the difficult times of life. (Psalm 95:1-6 & Psalm 34). Tuesday. January 11, 2022

Day 12 Educational Endeavours – Today we pray that God will bless our children in their academic endeavors, that He will shield them from the political agendas that cut at the core of godliness and biblical values. (Daniel 1:8-20 & Deuteronomy 6:4-9)
